Re: United States v. Zvi Zigelman, 23-cr-65

Colleen McMahon

Dear Judge McMahon:

We write to respectfully request an adjournment of Mr. Zigelman's sentencing date.

Mr. Zigelman's sentencing is currently scheduled for Sep. 21. That date falls this year between Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, two of the most important Jewish holidays of the year, and a time when it will be particularly difficult for Mr. Zigelman, his family members, and counsel to appear for sentencing. An adjournment will also give counsel, who have numerous other filing deadlines over the next few weeks, sufficient time to finalize Mr. Zigelman's sentencing submission.

We therefore ask that the Court re-schedule Mr. Zigelman's for a date convenient to the Court after the completion of the Jewish holidays (Sukkot) on October 8. We also respectfully ask that the Court not re-schedule the sentencing for November 7 (when counsel have a sentencing for another client), or between November 9 and Thanksgiving (when one of Mr. Zigelman's attorneys will be on vacation out of the country).

We have spoken to AUSA Emily Deininger and she has no objection to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
